COUNTY OFFICERS

Submitted by the 1933 Legislature:

A Concurrent Resolution to amend Section 173 of Article 10 of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota by rearranging and reconstructing said Section to provide for county officers so as to read as follows:

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of North Dakota:

Section 1. AMENDMENT.) That Section 173 of Article 10 of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota, as amended by Article 41 of the amendments thereof, is hereby amended and re-enacted to read as follows:

Section 173. At the first general election held after the adoption of this amendment, and every two years thereafter, there shall be elected in each organized county in the state, a register of deeds, county auditor, treasurer, sheriff, state's attorney, county judge and a clerk of the district court, who shall be electors in the county in which they are elected and who shall hold their office until their successors are elected and qualified; provided in counties having fifteen thousand population, or less, the county judge shall also be the clerk of the district court. Provided further that counties having a population of 6,000 or less, the register of deeds shall also be clerk of the district court and county judge. The legislative assembly shall provide by law for such other county, township and district officers as may be deemed necessary, and shall prescribe the duties and compensation of all county, township and district officers. The sheriff and treasurer of any county shall not hold their respective offices for more than four years in succession.

READING OF LEGISLATIVE BILLS

Submitted by the 1933 Legislature:

A Concurrent Resolution to amend Section 63 of Article 2 of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota by rearranging and reconstructing said Section to provide for the reading of legislative bills so as to read as follows:

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of North Dakota:

That Section 63 of Article 2 of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota be and the same hereby is amended to read as follows:

Section 63. Every bill shall be read two separate times, but the first and second readings may not be upon the same day, and the first reading may be by title of the bill only, unless upon such first reading, a reading at length is demanded. The second reading shall be at length. No legislative day shall be shorter than the natural day.
