

No. 3 Initiated Constitutional Amendment:

To change the name of the institution of higher learning at Fargo from "The Agricultural College at the city of Fargo in the County of Cass", as it is now known, to "The North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science at the city of Fargo, in the County of Cass".

Submitted by initiative petition providing for the amendment of Section 215, subsection 3, of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota relating to changing and establishing the name of the North Dakota Agricultural College by omitting the words "The Agricultural College at the City of Fargo in the County of Cass" and adding the words "The North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science at the City of Fargo, in the County of Cass."

BALLOT TITLE:

An initiative Petition to amend and reenact the Third Paragraph of Section 215 of Article XIX of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota to change the name of the Agricultural College to "The North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA:

Paragraph Third of Section 215 of Article XIX of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota, as amended, is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Third: The North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science at the City of Fargo, in the County of Cass.

Filed July 5, 1960.

Shall Said Initiated Constitutional Amendment Be Approved?

YES

NO

North Dakota
Homemakers Council

President Mrs. Bernard J. Kennedy says:

"The North Dakota Homemakers Council unanimously approves the proposed change in the name of the North Dakota Agricultural College. The new name to be North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science."

North Dakota Farm Bureau

President G. H. Mikkelsen says:

"Because I believe (1) that agriculture is a profession (2) that the School of Agriculture and its allied Experiment Station should be strengthened wherever possible, and (3) that the agricultural college is in reality a university, I support the change in name to North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science."

(Sponsored and paid for by the NDAC Name Change Committee.
Robert and Shirley Nasset, Co-chairmen)

North Dakota's Leaders of Farm and Home Organizations says:

Vote YES X
on Measure 3

to change the name of the Agricultural College to

North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science

North Dakota
Farmers Union

President Glen J. Talbott says:

"Through the years North Dakota's Agricultural College has kept pace with and adapted itself to the changing demands of curriculum needs of our young people. Recognizing this, delegates to our state convention, representing more than 44,000 farm families of North Dakota, unanimously adopted the policy statement favoring changing the name of NDAC to North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science."

Changing NDAC's name helps recognize the importance of agriculture in North Dakota and will:

- * Increase out-of-state money to finance research and facilities
- * Help in attracting and keeping good teachers and researchers
- * Gain parity with other state agricultural colleges.

North Dakota Crop Improvement Association

President Frank V. Schaan says

"Because Agriculture is our basic industry in North Dakota and because there is great need for Agricultural research, the name change from North Dakota Agricultural College to North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science would add prestige to agriculture in North Dakota and financial assistance to agricultural research in our state."

(Sponsored and paid for by the NDAC Name Change Committee.
Robert and Shirley Nasset, Co-chairmen)

North Dakota Stockmen's Association

President Jim Connelly says:

"I agree with the unanimous decision of the 1960 convention of the North Dakota Stockmen's Association that the name of the agricultural college be changed to North Dakota State University of Agriculture and Applied Science. It is my feeling that the name "University" will mean greater financial contributions from out-of-state for research and study and will help graduates in all fields get proper recognition for the outstanding training they are now receiving at NDAC."